

WIDE-LP program and social media changes since Nov. 1, 2023

In response to a listener request, Alien Echoes was brought back, but at the new time requested, from midnight to 1 AM on Sundays. A program from the creator of the Stop Shopping Choir, Earth Riot Radio, was added at 11 to 11:30 PM Sundays. A few new artists and musicals were added to the lists in Our Music Library. Humanism Today on Mondays has repeated many old programs due to a lack of new programs from podcasters who have given us permission to broadcast. After we had cycled through the Meadowood Life Story recordings I rebroadcast Drama by Dreams Cast recordings from 2014 before starting to use short stories from LibriVox on Saturdays at noon.

In Jan. 2023 I started posting coming talk show info to Post.news in addition to Facebook and Twitter. I wanted to see if it could become a viable alternative. It only lasted until April of this year when the founder closed it down because it was not growing fast enough to meet his business goals.
